Beethoven and his nephew: A psychoanalytic study of their ... His hearing had worsened, and he was in a creative slump. Having wrested control of his young nephew from his sister-in-law, he needed to give the appearance that he was providing the boy a good home.

‘One of Beethoven’s oldest and most sincere friends’: The ... Ludwig cared deeply for his nephew, Karl, and felt very responsible for him. After his brother’s death, Ludwig looked after Karl as a father would, helping him financially and being a guiding hand to him through his life. Beethoven’s letters from this time address him as “My son” and sign off as “Your faithful father”.

Beethoven’s Siblings: The van Beethoven Family - CMUSE Dieter Prinz as Karl, Beethoven's nephew, is monotonous and expressionless (as are several other actors). He may have been reading his lines phonetically; if so someone should have coached him better. The costumer clearly did her research, as some of the outfits look nearly identical to sketches and paintings from Beethoven's time.
