FOLIAGE is an assemblage of personal opinions gathered over time, referring to the observation of the human personality, and which are rated on the individual and societal platforms. With little effort and only with willingness to observe the nature of people around, everyone's character can be easily discerned and understood for shaping an accurate opinion.. If not for other reason, perceiving and analyzing the development of the human ways of thinking, feeling, and acting, is the best way to know oneself. Various sides of the human nature gathered through observation and personal experiences are
