For the aficionado of farm equipment, or the scion of an old farming family nostalgic for the old days, or the grown-up boy who still loves a classic piece of old-time machinery, the vintage tractor can be a thrilling find like no other. This book tells dozens of stories of such discoveries, of the treasured old tractor parked in a shed since 1927, of the pristine model unearthed at an estate sale, of the broken-down old beauty stashed in a barn where generations of children have made their secret hideaways. These are the classic tractors that are often as hard to find as a needle in a haystack—but far more fun to discover, as all of these delightful stories make abundantly clear.

An textbook for advanced undergraduate and graduate atmospheric science and meteorology students. Although this book addresses a technically and mathematically demanding subject, the writing style is designed to be engaging and accessible for students requiring a basic foundation in atmospheric physics.

A microbiologist and his CEO son take readers on a tour of a specific home for a look at the surprising health risks posed by the everyday products and behaviors of a modern family, in a book that offers practical solutions to these everyday dangers. 50,000 first printing.

Lek and Giannis were married for ten years and lived happily with their children in North-East Thailand. Though Giannis spoke often of his Cretan childhood and heritage, he never showed his family the island of his birth. When Giannis dies, his widow takes her two children to Crete on a journey of discovery which will change their lives. This story first appeared in the collection Mist on the Jungle and Other Stories.
