Good management is a precious commodity in the corporate world. Guide to Management Ideas and Gurus is a straight-forward manual on the most innovative management ideas and the management gurus who developed them. The earlier edition, Guide to Management Ideas, presented the most significant ideas that continue to underpin business management. This new book builds on those ideas and adds detailed biographies of the people who came up with them—the most influential business thinkers of the past and present. Topics covered include: Active Inertia, Disruptive Technology, Genchi Genbutsu (Japanese for "Go and See for Yourself"), The Halo Effect, The Long Tail, Skunkworks, Tipping Point, Triple Bottom Line, and more. The management gurus covered include: Dale Carnegie, Jim Collins, Stephen Covey, Peter Drucker, Philip Kotler, Michael Porter, Tom Peters, and many others.

Features of the fourth edition of The Marketing Plan Handbook include: Your Marketing Plan, Step-by-Step - This new feature guides you through the development of an individualized marketing plan, providing assistance in generating ideas, and challenging you to think critically about the issues. Model of the Marketing Planning Process - A new conceptual model of the planning process serves as an organizing figure for the book. The model helps you visualize the connections between the steps and to focus on the three key outcomes of any marketing plan: to provide value, to build relationships, and to make a difference to stakeholders. Sample Marketing plan - the updated sample plan for the SonicSuperphone, a multimedia, multifunction smartphone, illustrates the content and organization of a typical marketing plan. Practical Planning Tips - Every chapter includes numerous tips that emphasize practical aspects of planning and specific issues to consider when developing a marketing plan. Chapter Checklists - Prepare for planning by answering the questions in each chapter's checklist as you create your own marketing plan. There are 10 checklists in all, covering a wide range of steps in the planning.

You probably have a fairly good idea of what it took to construct the building in which your congregation meets. First, there was a recognized need for a building, followed by a budget, blueprints, fund-raising, construction workers, and building materials, and voil! The structure proudly stands as a monument to the effective implementation of a well-thought-out plan.
