Snap – Making The Most Of First Impressions, Body Language & Charisma by Patti Wood is a top-down analysis of the subject of body language. The author conveys countless useful tools individuals can use to ascertain how people are feeling.

Snap: Making the Most of First Impressions, Body Language ...

In fact, the most current research says that we can form an accurate first impression in 100 milliseconds — less than the time it takes to snap our fingers. We can process thousands of cues — whether visual, auditory, or tactile — and other nonverbal factors very quickly, so a snap impression occurs well before we've talked at length or exchanged business cards or email addresses.
